SECTION 3. IC 35-45-5-3 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]: Sec. 3. A person who knowingly or intentionally:

(1) engages in pool-selling;

(2) engages in bookmaking;

(3) maintains, in a place accessible to the public, slot machines, one-ball machines or variants thereof, pinball machines that award anything other than an immediate and unrecorded right of replay, roulette wheels, dice tables, or money or merchandise pushcards, punchboards, jars, or spindles;

(4) conducts lotteries, gift enterprises, or policy or numbers games, or sells chances therein;

(5) conducts any banking or percentage games played with cards, dice, or counters, or accepts any fixed share of the stakes therein;

or

(6) accepts, or offers to accept, for profit, money or other property risked in gambling; or

(7) engages in an activity described in subdivisions (1) through (6) by means of the world wide web;

commits professional gambling, a Class D felony.

SECTION 4. IC 35-45-5-4 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]: Sec. 4. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a person who:

(1) knowingly or intentionally owns, manufactures, possesses, buys, sells, rents, leases, repairs, or transports a gambling device, or offers or solicits an interest in a gambling device;

(2) before a race, game, contest, or event on which gambling may be conducted, knowingly or intentionally transmits or receives gambling information by any means, or knowingly or intentionally installs or maintains equipment for the transmission or receipt of gambling information; or

(b) Subsection (a)(1) does not apply to a boat manufacturer who:

(1) transports or possesses a gambling device solely for the purpose of installing that device in a boat that is to be sold and transported to a buyer; and

(2) does not display the gambling device to the general public or make the device available for use in Indiana.

(c) When a public utility is notified by a law enforcement agency acting within its jurisdiction that any service, facility, or equipment furnished by it is being used or will be used to violate this section, it shall discontinue or refuse to furnish that service, facility, or equipment, and no damages, penalty, or forfeiture, civil or criminal, may be found against a public utility for an act done in compliance with such a notice. This subsection does not prejudice the right of a person affected by it to secure an appropriate determination, as otherwise provided by law, that the service, facility, or equipment should not be discontinued or refused, or should be restored.

(d) When a law enforcement agency acting within its jurisdiction notifies an interactive computer service that a service, a facility, or equipment furnished by the interactive computer service is being used or will be used to commit an offense under this section, the interactive computer service shall discontinue or refuse to furnish the service, facility, or equipment to the person who is using or who will use the service, facility, or equipment to commit an offense under this section. No damages, penalty, or forfeiture, civil or criminal, may be found against the interactive computer service for an act done in compliance with the notice. This subsection does not affect the right of a person to secure an appropriate determination that the service, facility, or equipment must not be discontinued or refused, or must be restored.

(e) When a law enforcement agency acting within its jurisdiction notifies an interactive computer service that a site or an area to which the interactive computer service provides access is being used or will be used to transmit or receive gambling information in violation of Indiana law, the interactive computer service shall:

(1) give reasonable notice to the subscribers of its service; and

(2) use all technological means possible to block access to the site or area through its service.
